

Bryan Minus & The Disconnect Announce West Coast Tour

Portland, Oregon-September, 14th

Set to release their debut full-length record, Empty Skies, Bryan Minus & The Disconnect are doing a West Coast tour in support. The tour will launch with the band's record release show on October 13th in their hometown, Portland, Oregon. They will then head up and down the I-5 corridor. The band is hoping for better luck than the last time they traveled the West Coast as their van, lovingly dubbed "Gold-digger", broke down in every state.

Their new record Empty Skies is a huge step forward for the band with stronger songs and production. Built around a drum machine, the songs bring together 80's dark wave and 90's alternative rock.
